From Monday June 9. to Thursday June 12. 1707.

Kensington, June 10.

THE humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Rutland: Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Sherard, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid County, and Sir Thomas Mackworth Bar. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

THE Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Undertakings ever ſince Your happy Acceſſion to the Throne, ſufficiently proclaims Your being as peculiarly the Care of Providence as You are entire in the Hearts of Your Subjects, who, under Your auſpicious Reign, have Reaſon to eſteem themſelves the happieſt People in the World, enjoying Peace and Plenty at Home; and, by Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, the Accompliſhment of the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland in a few Months, which has been for Ages paſt unſucceſsfully attempted.

May Your Majeſty be many Years a Witneſs of the deſired Effects of it; and we Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects of Great Britain ſhall endeavour there ſhall be no other Emulation amongſt us, than who ſhall approve themſelves moſt Serviceable and Obedient to Your Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Aſſiſtants, of Her Majeſty's Loyal Corporation of Tiverton: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Bere Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful Subjects, beg Leave to join in the Publick Joy; and having ſo often rendered Thanks for the Wonderful Victories obtained over the Common Enemy by Your Arms Abroad, deſire now to Congratulate the Proſperous Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Councils at Home, in uniting England and Scotland into One Kingdom.

The Sovereign Power Your Majeſty hath over the Hearts and Affections of Your People, (the moſt noble of all Victories) now appears gloriouſly to the whole World; ſince nothing elſe could cauſe that great Readineſs both Nations have ſhewn to be made One under Your Majeſty's moſt happy Government: A Bleſſing in vain wiſh'd for in former Reigns.

That this Union may fully anſwer the great Ends by Your Majeſty's Goodneſs deſigned; the Security of our Eſtabliſh'd Church and the Proteſtant Religion, as well as the Strength, Common Welfare and Proſperity, of Great Britain, to the Joy of our Friends and Allies, the Envy and Terror of our Foes, is the ſincere Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Steward, Jurats, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants, of Her Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Feverſham, in the County of Kent: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Napleton Eſq; their Steward; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Rockingham, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To Her moſt Excellent Majeſty ANNE, Queen of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts ſincerely thankful to Almighty God, and grateful to Your Majeſty, for all the great and invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, do moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty on the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

It is with the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction that we ſee the Completion of this great Work, ſo glorious to Your Majeſty, and beneficial to all Your People, by which the Strength and Honour of Your Government is increaſed and advanced, the preſent and future Peace of this whole Iſland ſettled on a laſting Foundation, the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line more firmly eſtabliſhed, and our Religion, Laws and Liberties, ſecured to our Poſterity.

Your Majeſty's indulgent Care of the Good and Welfare of all Your Subjects, thro' the whole Courſe of Your gracious Adminiſtration, does evidently ſhew the generous Motive which firſt led You to attempt it, as the happy Event does the Wiſdom of Your Council and Conduct, which ſo ſucceſsfully has overcome all thoſe Difficulties that rendered all former Endeavours to obtain it ineffectual.

We moſt heartily pray for the long Continuance of Your Majeſty's happy Reign over us; and that all Your Subjects with united Affections may purſue their common Intereſt, by their conſtant Endeavours to improve ſo great a Bleſſing to the beſt Advantage, and make all due Returns of Gratitude and Obedience to the beſt of Princes.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the Corporation of Brecon, for and in behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Burgeſſes of the ſaid Corporation: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Jeffrey Jeffreys, their Repreſentative in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Wonderful Work of uniting theſe Two Kingdoms into One Nation, which Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Wiſdom has lately brought to Perfection, makes Your Dutiful Subjects humbly preſume, upon a Happineſs Your great Goodneſs has often vouchſafed us, to approach Your Royal Throne, and offer up, with our Congratulations, the ſincereſt Thankfulneſs for the many Bleſſings Your People every where enjoy; and of which Your Sacred Majeſty, by the particular Favour of Divine Providence, is made the remarkable Occaſion. May the ſame Providence (if we are worthy of them) long continue theſe his Bleſſings, and the Sacred Perſon by whom they are conveyed; whereby ours, and after them very late Poſterity, may (as we are) be happy Witneſſes of ſo glorious a Reign. In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation to be hereunto affix'd, the laſt Day of May, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

Northumberland Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Scarborough, Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum for that County.

Newcaſtle upon Tyne Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Henry Liddell Bar. and William Carr Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Scarborough, Lord-Lieutenant of that Town and County.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, June 3. N. S. We have receiv'd Advice, That the German Troops were advanc'd to the State of Urbino in their Way to Loretto, where General Thaun is to open his Second Letter of Inſtructions how to proceed on his March towards Naples. General Wetzel and other German Officers are at Rome, where they demand of the Pope to ſet at Liberty the Four Neapolitan Princes who have been long confin'd in the Caſtle of St. Angelo, and the German Captain who was impriſon'd for ſecretly raiſing Soldiers to ſerve in the Reduction of the Kingdom of Naples. The Pope hath taken off the Excommunication of the Viceroy of Naples; and we hear Cardinal Pignatelli is on his Departure for that Kingdom to take Poſſeſſion of the Archbiſhoprick of Naples, in which he hath been oppos'd for ſome Years; being a declared Friend of the Houſe of Auſtria.

Berlin, June 11. His Majeſty diverts himſelf, during the Heat of the Summer, in removing from one Country-Houſe to another; having Variety of pleaſing Seats at a ſmall Diſtance from this City. The Court attended His Majeſty this Morning to Oranienberg, whither the Prince and Princeſs Royal will follow in a few Days. It being the Firſt Time of the Princeſs's viſiting that Place, there will be Illuminations and ſeveral extraordinary Diverſions prepar'd for her Entertainment. The Britiſh Ambaſſador intends to go thither at the ſame Time, by a particular Invitation from His Majeſty, who, with the Prince Royal, did that Miniſter the Honour to Sup with him on Wedneſday laſt at his Excellency's Houſe of Retirement near the Town. The King took the Diverſion of ſailing down the River from Charlottenberg in his Yacht, and was receiv'd at his Landing by his Excellency, who attended his Arrival with a Train of 5 Coaches; his Excellency's Body-Coach, in which the King rode, being drawn by 8 Horſes. The King having written ſome Time ſince to the Elector of Hanover, on the Occaſion of his Electoral Highneſs's interfering with Him in the Affair of the County of Manſfeldt, which King Auguſtus was willing to engage for a Sum of Money, has lately receiv'd for Anſwer, That the Elector had only accepted the Offer made by King Auguſtus, without any previous Advances on his ſide. It is ſaid, That Monſieur Oberg, who is now in Saxony, has concluded this Negociation for the County of Manſfeldt; and that his Electoral Highneſs is to lend upon it 600000 Dollars. The Miniſters of Hanover having deſir'd His Majeſty to communicate to them the Inſtructions he has given to his Deputies deſign'd for the Viſitation of the Chamber at Wetzlar, and having ſignify'd his Electoral Highneſs's Intention of acting in Conformity with His Pruſſian Majeſty for the Reformation of ſuch Abuſes as have crept into that Court of Juſtice, they have accordingly receiv'd from the King's Miniſters a Copy of their Inſtructions. Letters from Lublin, of the 28th of May, adviſe, That the Great Council open'd there on the 23d with the uſual Solemnities, but had not then enter'd on Buſineſs; the Primate having adjourn'd the Seſſion for ſome Days, to give Time for the Arrival of the Deputies.

Leipſick, June 11. On Thurſday laſt the King of Sweden, accompanied by King Staniſlaus, did Major-General Mayerfeldt the Honour to be preſent at his Marriage with Mademoiſelle Tornflycht, Siſter to the Counteſs Piper. Major-General Wrangel
